JOIN THE T1D EXCHANGE!

WHAT IS THE T1D EXCHANGE?

The T1D Exchange is a project being done to learn more about type 1 diabetes to improve day-to-day management and accelerate research efforts.

- People of any age with a clinical diagnosis of type 1 diabetes can join
- More than 60 diabetes centers across the U.S. are participating with a goal of enrolling at least 25,000 individuals

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

We will collect information about your diabetes that is recorded in your medical chart and you will complete a form with questions about your diabetes and health.

- No extra visits, blood tests or clinical procedures required in addition to your usual clinic visits
- In the future, the T1D Exchange will have a web site available for you to access your information recorded for the study
